*Estimates.

Note: The "All Other Stores" Category includes apparel and accessories, gasoline stations, building materials and hardware, liquor, sporting goods, books, stationery, jewelry, hobby and toy, photographic, and gift stores, as well as nonstore retailers. The 1979 retail sales estimates in the 1980 Survey of Buying Power are not directly comparable with those in previous Surveys for the following reasons: 1) Benchmark data and growth rates for retail store types and geographical areas were revised in line with the results of the 1977 Census of Retail Trade. 2) Sales and other taxes, as well as carrying charges and other charges for credit, are no longer included.
